ASM Research
An Accenture Federal Services Company

ASM - Totara's Partner

Through our partnership with Totara, ASM brings a new world of learning options to our clients

ASM Research, an Accenture Federal Services Company, has been in the business of talent and learning management for over 30 years. Our experience in developing tools and services that tie learning management systems together make us a perfect partner to help Totara find their niche in the United States and in particular the Federal Government.

Over 30 Years of Talent Management Experience

Headquartered in Washington, DC, ASM focuses on the needs of the Government and those organizations that support it

ASM has four decades of learning management experience and over 400 staff to meet the learning needs of our clients

ASM follows PMI and CMMI standards to deliver projects on time and within budget

Client Trusted for Learning Solutions

ASM has a wealth of expertise and the right personnel to meet all types of learning requirements

ASM has a capable management team who regularly complete complex and demanding tasks in a fast changing environment

ASM developed the Army Training Requirements and Resources System (ATRRS) in 1975 and has supported the system ever since

ASM offers clients custom solutions as well as the integration of COTS alternatives with existing systems

ASM and Totara

ASM's partnership with Totara brings powerful and robust Open Source talent and learning management options to our government and corporate clients

Totara is based on the Moodle engine, a technology that has been embraced by the Federal Government as a solution of choice

ASM chose Totara as its partner based on its reputation as a subscription-based solution successfully implemented by large companies such as Kohl's and Safeway
